

STOEL RIVES RESPONSE TO COVID-19

Like many of you, we are closely monitoring the COVID-19 pandemic and our thoughts are with all those who are directly impacted.

As a firm, Stoel Rives has taken proactive steps to protect our colleagues while continuing to provide the vital legal counsel upon which you depend. Our attorneys and professional staff have access to the information and technologies we need to continue to support your legal needs and ensure our client work continues seamlessly.

We also understand that the spread and containment of the COVID-19 coronavirus are presenting employers with numerous challenges. Employers want to keep their employees safe and minimize the impact of the pandemic on their business. In doing so, employers must take various labor and employment laws into consideration as they develop their response plans and policies. Our attorneys are presenting free webinars for our clients as new information becomes available, including addressing key issues employers need to know to prepare for and help manage concerns while mitigating risk. Registration will be available on our resource webpage, which also includes information on legal issues related to COVID-19 for our clients.

We are grateful for the opportunity to work with you and thank you for putting your trust in Stoel Rives.
